7. [RUSKIN] ATKINSON, Blanche Ruskin's social experiment at Barmouth: also an article written for Ruskin's last birthday / by Blanche Atkinson.

London : James Clarke & Co. Undated 1900?

54pp illustrated. Decorated wrappers. Line illustration as frontispiece and others in the text. Autographed letter signed loosely inserted 4ff from Blanche Atkinson to Mrs [Edith] Rawnsley in which she asks if there is likely to be a market for the pamphlet at Keswick. [In the Lake District.] The purpose of the booklet, was to provide "the authentic story of the St Georges' Cottages" at Barmouth which she implies is for Mrs [Fanny] Talbot's sake. Insightful letter casting light on Blanche Atkinson and friendship as well as indicating the links Blanche Atkinson and the Rawnsleys. Ruskin's social experiment reprinted from "The Leisure hour" by A. J. Hewins. Article written for Ruskin's last birthday reprinted from "The Liverpool daily post". Blanche Atkinson is best known as a children's author but is also noted for her correspondence and friendship with Ruskin. The Rawnsleys were key campaigners for the conservation of the Lake District, influenced the founding of the National Trust and were the driving force behind the establishment of the Keswick School of Industrial Art [Ref: 21118] £160

8. [RUSKIN] Ruskin Exhibition Coniston July 21 to Sept 8 1900
William Holmes Printer Ulverston 1900 [revised edition] 36pp. Small 8vo. Decorated wrappers. Foreword by W G Collingwood. Ruskin died at Brantwood of influenza on 20 Jan 1900. His colleague W. G. Collingwood organised a memorial exhibition in the newly extended Assembly Rooms of the Coniston Institute. The proceeds from the exhibition not only paid off the outstanding debt on the Assembly Room but raised sufficient funds to build a further extension to house a permanent memorial exhibition there to Ruskin. This is now the basis of the Ruskin Museum. Signature of Albert Fleming 1900 [Associated with revival in traditional handcrafts in the Lake District.] on the upper wrapper. An important memorial exhibition of Ruskin's letters, books, manuscripts and over 200 drawings and water colours; arguably, the most comprehensive collection of Ruskiniana ever presented to the public. Artifacts now housed in the Ruskin Museum at Coniston. [Ref: 21123] £95
